Campfire Program – Cowboy Ceilidh

6:00 pm – 7:30 pm

The Reserve at Rancho Mission Viejo Headquarters

Grab your favorite lad or lassie and discover Rancho Mission Viejo's Irish roots by participating in a Cowboy Cèilidh. A cèilidh (pronounced kay-lee) is a traditional gaelic gathering with stories and songs. Hear the story of how two Irish immigrants began one of California's greatest ranchos. Sing along to traditional Irish ballads and cowboy lullabies. Dress warmly and bring your own camp chair as we sing and celebrate the Irish roots of The Reserve!

Reserve Supporters are invited to arrive at 5:30pm to bring and enjoy their own picnic dinner prior to the start of the program. If you are not a Reserve supporter, please visit our Supporter page to sign up.

Ages: 8 and up

Volunteer Orientation and Training

9:00 am – 12:00 pm

The Reserve at Rancho Mission Viejo Headquarters

Please join us for Volunteer Orientation and Training!

This fun and informational orientation is the first step in joining us as an official Reserve Volunteer. Learn about The Reserve's history, philosophy and mission, as well as skills for working with the public. Meet other volunteers and learn how you can help preserve Reserve lands through conservation and education.

CERTIFIED RESERVE VOLUNTEER PROGRAM:

This training is the first step in becoming a Certified Reserve Volunteer. Certified Reserve Volunteers are specially trained volunteers that lead and co-lead Reserve programs.

Thank you for expressing interest in volunteering for The Reserve at Rancho Mission Viejo.
